This approved course is an intensive and comprehensive immersion in the ethos and practice skills used to apply a restorative lens to the task of relationship repair, the addressing of harm and the growth of community. This Restorative Practice Facilitation Skills course is unique, in that it incorporates tuition in enhanced practitioner skills using a unique method of engagement, enabling greater inclusion of parties in the process. Prior knowledge of restorative practice is not a pre-requisite for undertaking this course.

Participant learning takes place through activities, discussion and skills practise. This course will give a clear understanding of the context for the Restorative approach, the key skills for safe practice and the strategies for effective implementation. This course is appropriate to a variety of settings and wider communities.
